NEW YORK, NY – Anchin, Block & Anchin LLP is pleased to announce the establishment of Anchin, Block & Anchin (Cayman) Ltd., to provide audit services to funds registered in the Cayman Islands. Anchin Cayman’s resident member is Philip Rankin, CPA.

“The Cayman Islands have developed into one of the most popular jurisdictions for offshore funds,” said Jeffrey I. Rosenthal, CPA, partner-in-charge of Anchin’s Financial Services Practice. “There has been tremendous growth in the number of funds established in the Cayman Islands, so it was only natural for us establish a presence there.”

Anchin Cayman has been approved by the Cayman Island Monetary Authority (CIMA), the financial regulatory agency of the Cayman Islands.

Anchin’s Financial Services Practice is a leader in providing auditing, accounting and tax services to the financial services community. The practice currently serves more than 400 investment funds, funds of funds, mutual funds, broker/dealers and investment advisers.

Anchin is recognized as one of the “best of the best” accounting firms in the country, a Best Place to Work in New York State and New York City, and a Best Accounting Firm to Work For in the United States. In addition to its Financial Services Practice, the full-service firm of 400 serves privately-held businesses and high net worth individuals with a wide range of traditional and non-traditional advisory services, including financial statement preparation; tax planning and compliance services; economic development and tax incentives; management and succession advisory services; litigation support, forensic accounting and valuation services; merger and acquisition services; and wealth management.
