

Anchin Continues Expansion by Adding Leaders to its Private Client and Client Accounting Advisory Services Groups

January 11, 2023

Anchin, a premier New York-based accounting and advisory firm, is pleased to announce two strategic additions to the firm. Elizabeth Zabłudoff has joined as a Principal in the Private Client Group and the Leader of Family Office Services. Anthony Carrella has joined as a Partner and the Leader of Client Accounting Advisory Services.

This announcement kicks off another exciting year of growth for Anchin.

In 2022, the firm opened an office in Boca Raton, Florida; added seven partners and principals; was again named a Best Place to Work in New York City, New York State, and nationally; and promoted a record group to Director and Senior Manager. All of these actions have laid the foundation for a new year that will be focused on both internal and external expansion. "I am excited to welcome Liz and Anthony to the team. Their addition will further align our services with those that support our clients' continued success" says Russell B. Shinsky, Anchin's Managing Partner.

Elizabeth Zabudoff, JD, is a Principal in Anchin's Private Client Group and the Family Office Services Leader. She has more than 20 years of professional experience focusing on the needs of high-net-worth clients. Elizabeth has significant experience working with wealthy individuals and families (including several Forbes 400 families) and has earned her reputation as a thought leader and trusted advisor in the high-net-worth community. Her primary areas of focus include transgenerational wealth creation and family entrepreneurship.

Anthony Carrella, CPA, CGMA, is a Partner and the Leader of Anchin's Client Accounting Advisory Services Group with more than 15 years of financial experience. Anthony specializes in helping companies maximize cash flow, implement budgets, maximize cost savings, and manage their accounting and reporting accurately, timely and efficiently. He advises established and start-up clients in a wide range of industries including real estate, financial services, consumer products, technology and professional services.
