

Anchin Expands Private Client Group with Addition of New Family Office Services Partner

July 18, 2024

Anchin is pleased to announce that Andrew Vinciguerra has joined as a Partner in the firm's Private Client and Family Office Services Groups. Andy Vinciguerra joins Anchin with over 21 years of experience advising ultra-high-net-worth individuals and their families on tax and financial matters.

Throughout his impressive career, Andy has amassed significant experience in identifying and delivering comprehensive family office support services aimed at simplifying clients' lives and achieving their financial goals. Prior to joining Anchin, he was a Partner at a renowned family office practice, and a privately-held boutique tax and accounting firm. His arrival further solidifies Anchin's reputation as a trusted advisor in the private client sector.

"We are excited to welcome Andy to the team. His commitment to excellence and extensive experience providing sophisticated family office services enhances our team's expertise and the firm's overall capabilities to provide high-level compliance and advisory solutions to high-net-worth individuals and families," says Jared Feldman, Partner and Leader of Anchin's Private Client Group.

In addition to welcoming Andy to the team, Anchin has seen substantial growth in 2024, including the establishment of a new office in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida, the firm's second location in Southern Florida, and the recent addition of three Florida-based Tax Managing Directors to the firm's Private Client Group.

"The influx of talent coming to Anchin truly reflects the current state of the accounting industry and how Anchin's core values, and uncompromising commitment to its clients, are providing professionals the platform they need to help them and their clients succeed," noted Russell B. Shinsky, Managing Partner at Anchin.

Andy Vinciguerra holds a Master's degree in Taxation and a Bachelor's degree in Accounting & Business Administration from the University of Kansas, where he graduated with distinction. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
