

Anchin Welcomes Philip Lebovits as Tax Director in Our Expanding Financial Services Industry Group

June 8, 2023

Anchin has announced that it has brought on Philip Lebovits, CPA, as Tax Director in the Firm's Financial Services Industry Group. Phil has more than 30 years of experience in the accounting profession, providing oversight of federal, state, local, and international tax matters to broker/dealers, private equity funds and hedge funds. His strong tax background and experience working with corporate clients, as well as high-net-worth individuals, speaks to his broad capabilities and enables him to extend a wide array of services.

"We are excited to welcome Phil to the team," says George Teixeira, Tax Partner and Tax Leader of the Financial Services Industry Group. "Phil's breadth and depth of experience, along with his demonstrated team leadership, makes him an excellent addition to a dynamic group. As the team grows, our main priority will be to sustain our focus on innovation and collaboration while prioritizing the acquisition of top-notch talent like Phil to effectively achieve our goals in delivering exceptional client service to an increasing number of financial services clients."

As a leading provider of audit, accounting and tax services for investment fund managers and private equity firms, Anchin's Financial Services Team develops strategic, growth-oriented solutions to address key concerns at every stage. The team of experienced professionals offers in-depth industry knowledge while recognizing that each transaction is unique. The group serves hedge funds, private equity, venture capital, emerging managers, special purpose vehicles, joint ventures & portfolio companies, funds of funds, investment managers, general partner entities & principals, broker dealers, and regulated investment companies.

Anchin's Emerging Manager Platform team works with funds and their managers to identify and help navigate the complexities of regulations and align business and tax strategies, while offering traditional services like audit, tax compliance and fund structuring at fees that are commensurate with the fund's growth.