

Anchin Wins 2025 Best of Accounting Award for Service Excellence for a Third Consecutive Year

February 5, 2025

Anchin is proud to announce that for the third consecutive year, it has been recognized as a 2025 Best of Accounting® Award winner for its commitment to providing exceptional service to its clients. This prestigious award, presented by ClearlyRated, is based entirely on client feedback and highlights firms that set the standard for service excellence in the accounting industry.

Best of Accounting winners have demonstrated industry-leading service quality, with client satisfaction scores that significantly surpass the industry average. According to ClearlyRated's survey, clients of 2025 Best of Accounting winners are 50% more likely to be satisfied compared to those working with non-winning firms.

Anchin received outstanding satisfaction scores from its clients, reflecting its dedication to excellence:

- A Net Promoter® Score (NPS) of 87.5%, well above the industry average of 38% in 2024.
- 89.5% of clients rated their experience a 9 or 10 out of 10, significantly exceeding the industry standard.

“Our firm prioritizes delivering exceptional service, and we are honored to be recognized by ClearlyRated, and our clients, for our dedication to client satisfaction,” said Russell B. Shinsky, Managing Partner at Anchin. “This award is a testament to the hard work of our team and our ongoing commitment to exceeding client expectations. We will continue to invest in enhancing our client experience through innovation and responsiveness.”

The Best of Accounting Award underscores Anchin’s unwavering focus on service quality, as the firm continues to build lasting relationships with clients and drive excellence in the accounting industry.
